
PAMELA MARKMAN

PROFILE

Pamela Markman is a self trained artist who first started creating 3D multimedia works that emphasized the politics and culture of the Hispanic community. She began painting several years ago and is mostly drawn to large canvas pieces and bold colors. All of her inspiration through the years has come from daily surroundings. She has exhibited her work in over a dozen shows. Pamela lives in Southern California with her husband and two dogs. She enjoys trail hikes, nachos, and California red wines.
